Special Issue of Software Quality Journal on Test Automation for Software Quality Assurance

1. Abstract
The special issue will focus on the subject of software test automation in the context of software quality assurance. It will cover, but is not limited to, the following aspects related to software test automation:
1) Methodology: Software test automation in various software development methodologies.
2) Technology: Automation of various test techniques and methods for testing related activities, as well as for testing various types of software applications.
3) Tools and environments: Issues in the development, operation, maintenance and evolution of software testing tools and environments, and their integration and inter-operation with other types of software development and maintenance tools and runtime support environments and platforms.
4) Experiments, empirical studies and experience reports: Experiments, empirical studies of software test automation, as well as reports on real experiences in using automated testing techniques, methods and tools in industry.
5) Identification of problems and visions of the future: The identification of problems that hamper wider adoption of automated test techniques, methods and tools and the analysis and specification of the requirements on automated software testing.

3. Important dates
- May. 31, 2015: open call-for-papers
- Oct 15, 2015: submission deadline

4. Paper Submission
Authors are encouraged to submit high-quality, original work that has neither appeared in, nor is under consideration by, other journals. Springer offers authors, editors and reviewers of Software Quality Journal a web-enabled online manuscript submission and review system. Our online system offers authors the ability to track the review process of their manuscript. This online system offers easy and straightforward log-in and submission procedures, and supports a wide range of submission file formats. Manuscript should be submitted to: http://SQJO.edmgr.com. Choose “S.I.: Test Automation for Software Quality Assurance” as the article type.
